

Grand Vision Foundation Internship 2021

SOCIAL MEDIA MARKETING INTERNSHIP

Grand Vision is an arts non-profit located in San Pedro's downtown Arts District. We present live and livestream music concerts at the 150-seat Grand Annex; offer music education programs for youth and adults; and provide marketing, and restoration support for the historic Warner Grand Theatre.

Through the LA County Arts Internship Program, we are seeking an undergraduate student to fill a paid, 400 hour SOCIAL MEDIA MARKETING intern position, full or part-time finishing by March 1, 2022, with flexibility to work from home. Applicants must attend school or have a permanent address in Los Angeles County. Students graduating May - December 2021 are eligible.

THE PROJECT

The focus of the project is to expand our social media reach and to implement and expand our social media marketing plan for 2021-22 concerts and events. Secondary work includes concert, event and office support.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

- Has interests and/or experience in marketing and social media, civic engagement and live music event promotion
- Has a high level of oral and written communication skills
- Has research and synthesis skills. Enjoys telling and writing a good story
- Is comfortable using popular social media platforms, including creating and posting short videos.
- Is fluent with Microsoft Office programs and Google Drive
- Is self-motivated and able to work independently

Experience with graphic and video programs and creative or journalistic writing a plus. The best candidate will be able to balance multiple projects and be a resourceful and innovative thinker.
